Cox topped the BIG EAST in five major offensive categories in conference play this season. She led all hitters with a .484 batting average and a .968 slugging percentage. She ranked first with 30 hits, including a league-leading eight home runs, to give her a .558 on-base percentage. The senior also ranks first in total bases, with 60 in conference play. Cox also excels behind the plate, where she picked off nine base-runners this season, six more than the closest competitor. In addition to being named BIG EAST Player of the Week on April 30, Cox also was named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Division I National Player of the Week.

Pitcher of the Year

Laura Winter, Notre Dame, So., P

In 98.2 BIG EAST innings pitched, the sophomore fanned 102 batters and topped the conference with 38 strikeouts looking. Winter produced a 25-8 overall record as the top hurler for the Irish. She was honored as the BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week on April 23.

Rookie of the Year

Alyssa Landrith, Rutgers, Fr., P

Landrith ranks among the top 10 in nearly every pitching statistic for conference games, including second with 102.0 innings pitched. She garnered eight wins while compiling an ERA of 1.85 and holding opposing batters to just a .218 average. In her first collegiate year, she took on the bulk of the Scarlet Knights' pitching, making 34 appearances. Landrith earned an 18-11 overall record and an 8-8 conference mark.

Coaching Staff of the Year

Louisville, 20-2 BIG EAST/50-3 Overall

Louisville was unanimously selected the 2012 Coaching Staff of the Year. This is the second coaching honor for UofL and the first since 2006. The No. 8/9 Cardinals produced a 50-3 record this season, setting a school mark for wins in a season. UofL also set a record for the longest winning streak, when it opened the season 28-0. In a win against St. John's on May 5, the Cardinals reached the pinnacle of success, earning the program's, and its coaching staff's, 500th victory since its inception in 2000. Louisville led the conference in batting average (.314), slugging percentage (.489), runs scored (282) and total bases (696) among other offensive statistics, while finishing second in ERA (1.33) and opponent batting average (.182). The BIG EAST Conference and XOS Digital, Inc., a leader in digital sports media, jointly announced a new partnership on July 1, 2010 resulting in an overhaul to the conference's official website www.bigeast.org. The BIG EAST Conference's re-launched site resides on a robust content management system that allows the site to be completely customized on the fly. The new site features a cutting-edge online video platform, a sleek new design, simplified navigation and a newly developed conference-wide regular season and postseason live statistics platform.

The conference's online video platform will retain its BIGEAST.tv branding, with fans driven to that URL to consume all of the conference's live online and on-demand video offerings. Those offerings will now include new on-demand programming in the form of webisodes and vignettes produced in XOS Digital's production facility. BIGEAST.tv also will feature highlights of every nationally televised BIG EAST contest posted following the conclusion of every game and other on-demand interviews and features. In addition, fans can access BIGEAST.tv for live streaming of certain conference championships, which will be offered free-to-consumers.
